6) Information Sharing

Journey Youth nights are often recorded through photos and videos for the purpose of remembrance and as a record to show the greater church community what Journey Youth has been up to during the year. If you or your child does not wish to have their photo taken during Illuminate activities, it is you and your child's responsibility to ensure that the leaders are aware of that wish.

The church has recently set up a web site and given Journey Youth its own page within it. We have also set up a group within Facebook. It is our hope to put some photos/video of what we do at Illuminate youth group on these sites to better promote who we are and what we do, so we are seeking permission from you to allow us to put photos/video that may contain your child. Please fill out the area below if you are willing for us to do so.

I give permission for photos/video containing my child to be published on the church web site and other related youth group accounts on the internet. I give consent for my child/children's image (photographic, print and film material) to be used by The Journey Uniting Church and its ministries for promotional use and within the church. I understand that reproductions of my child/children's image may be made at the discretion of The Journey Uniting Church.
